HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF AMERICAN MULES FOR EGYPT.

Marquis of Lorne Arrives at Niagara Falls—Guiteau's Brain Examiners Make Their Report—Colonel Merritt Commandant at West Point.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—For a long time the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad has been using its utmost endeavors to get control of the Hannibal & St. Joe railway, but without success. The controlling interest is represented by about [illegible] shares of stock and was held by John R. Duff of Boston, and though the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy offered him $53 a share for it he declined to take it. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy had they been successful would have connected St. Joseph and St. Louis, and thus opened a more direct and extended communication with the state of Missouri. A syndicate was formed on the failure of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy to secure control, consisting of Jay Gould, Russell Sage and Sidney Dillon, Washington O'Connor and Mr. F. Launes with the same object. The C. B. & Q. had but to add to the St. Joe the Wabash system and this they this afternoon accomplished. The moment the news was received in Wall street, there was a rise of 3½ per cent in Hannibal & St. Joe preferred. The advantage to the Wabash system in the controlling of this road is very great, and the state of Missouri is now completely covered by the Wabash and its branches. The price paid was not made known.

The Ticket Scalpers' Game.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 2.—L. D. Ross, the ticket scalper, arrested yesterday for selling railroad tickets, was ticket agent at Hannibal last spring and was a fast man, and to meet expenses printed a lot of counterfeit coupon tickets on the Quincy road and sold them to scalpers. In June he was discharged and then went into business at the cutting rates, and then sent bogus tickets thence to Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis. Scalpers believe that he has [illegible] of Cheyenne tickets alone, with draw back at Denver, about $2500 worth. It is estimated that his [illegible] is $400,000. He was released on bail today, but was rearrested on additional evidence, and is now under $2500 bonds. Officials say the tickets were issued in the names of the P., D. & E. and Lake Erie and Western, to be used over the St. Joe, Wabash, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific railroads. [illegible] are found in Peoria and Quincy [illegible]. Tickets were sold to certain [illegible] parties going only to intermediate points and [illegible] by confederate scalpers. At these [illegible] the tickets were then destroyed [illegible] the auditing office.

Newspapers a Necessity.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A reporter yesterday called on John W. Rhodes, agent of the New York News Company, to ascertain whether the Egyptian war had produced any increase in the demand for newspapers, and what other sources might affect their circulation. "The increase," said Mr. Rhodes, "since the Egyptian war became a matter of public interest, has hardly been appreciable. It does not amount to two per cent. The demand for newspapers remains very steady under all circumstances. During periods of general business depression there is very little falling off. With the American public newspapers have become a necessity. Since the daily papers have made such extensive use of the Atlantic cable to obtain European news the demand for English papers has declined fully 30 per cent. The number taken is now very small. The Egyptian war has caused a slight increase in the demand for the weekly edition of the London Times."

Fine Mules for Egypt.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—Colonel Swinley, of the English royal artillery, purchased in this market to-day [illegible] mules for service in Egypt. They range from 5 [illegible] years of age, and from 14 to 15 hands high and are pronounced by Colonel Swinley and Dr. Cox, his veterinary surgeon, the finest mules they ever saw. This is the only purchase so far made in this country. They will be sent by rail at once to New York [illegible] they will go direct to Alexandria by steamer.

Guiteau's Brain Examined.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—Dr. E. O. Shakespeare of this city, Dr. J. W. Arnold of New York and Dr. J. [illegible] of Washington, surgeons engaged in examining Guiteau's brain, met to day and decided to issue a report showing results next week. The report will have no reference to Guiteau's sanity. It will be a comprehensive statement of the condition of the brain and nature of its disease, if any.

Wyoming Notes.

CHEYENNE, Sept. 2.—Yard-master Frank Stevens was killed last evening by a yard engine. His body was frightfully mangled. The foot of the deceased [illegible].

The first copper melter is being erected in the new copper camp near Fort Laramie. The ore runs from 12 to 60 per cent. of copper, and the supply is as large as the Lake Superior region.

Indictments Brought.

[illegible], Sept. 2.—The grand jury of the United States circuit court for West Virginia at Parkersburg yesterday, brought in a presentment of manslaughter against Inspector Young for granting a permit to the steamer Scioto to carry more passengers than authorized by law; also against David [illegible], pilot of Scioto, and Capt. Inglebright and [illegible] Long of the Lomas.

The Skirmishing Fund.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Those agitating the whereabouts of the Irish skirmishing fund have appointed a permanent committee of investigation, the other committee not having received any satisfactory accounting from the trustees.

Army News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—General Merritt assumed command at West Point yesterday. Gen. Howard is assigned to the department of the Platte with headquarters at Omaha.

A Canard.

[illegible], O., Sept. 2.—Two letters from [illegible] announce the report of the schooner and [illegible] being sunk there is a canard.

Cotton Late.

[illegible], Sept. 2.—Cotton throughout this section [illegible] later than last year. The first bale of the new crop was received last night.

Suicide.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 2.—Daniel N. Sherwood, for [illegible] years route agent on the railway, having been discovered in pilfering registered letters committed suicide to-day.

Distinguished Britishers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—A distinguished party of Englishmen are in the city. They include John Pender, member of parliament and president of the Direct Cable Co., J. W. Huller, secretary of the same company, with Hon. Abraham Hewett, F. F. Bayard and Lieutenant Commodore Yaring. They are en route to Yellowstone park at the invitation of Mr. Hewitt.

Notable Passengers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Among the passengers on the Alaska arrival this morning are the British rifle team to compete at Creedmoor Sept. 14 and 15, and Rowell the pedestrian.

The Lorne Party Arrive.

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept. 2.—The vice regal party arrived here this evening, and leave to-day for Chicago and the west.

Arthur's Movements.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The president and party left this evening in the steamer Dispatch for Woodshall. The president spent the day at the residence of John N. A. Griswold.

The Dispatch all Right.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 2.—The Dispatch came off without assistance and is now on its way to this harbor.

THE TURF.

An Interesting Race.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Following is a description of the race between Santa Claus and Fannie Witherspoon at Hartford yesterday, in the race open to all except Maud S., St. Julien and Trinket. The only starters were Santa Claus and Fannie Witherspoon, the former at $50 to $20. In the first heat Fannie had the pole. She broke on the turn, but caught and the two passed the quarter neck and neck. Then the sulkies collided and spokes flew, but neither driver was unseated. Fannie broke, and Santa Claus taking a four lengths lead at the half, won in 2:21. In the second heat Fannie went off on a break nearly to the turn, giving Santa Claus an eight lengths lead at the quarter. Fannie closed up to only two lengths back. At the half she drew up closer, got her nose at the leader's wheel and made a lively race to the close, Santa Claus holding the lead safely. In the third heat they went even to the turn, when Santa Claus opened away at the quarter. Fannie was reducing the lead, but she broke at the middle of the stretch, settling at the half ten lengths back of Santa Claus, who held up a trifle, and Fannie closed to three lengths, but broke at the head of the stretch. This ended it, and the stallion won by three lengths in 2:21¼.

Coney Island Races.

Third race, 1¾ mile—Won by Parole, Tom Plunkett 2d, Girofle 3d. Time 3:41¼.

Fourth race, ¾ mile—Won by Parnes, Empress 2d, Bessie 3d. Time 1:39 ½.

Fifth race, 1 mile—Won by Tonawanda, Tennyson 2d, Woolcraft 3d. Time, 1:49¾.

Sixth race, steeple chase, over short course—Won by Belle of the North, Forager 2d, Keokuk Boy 3d. Time, 5:23¼.

Going to Australia.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The [illegible] year old thoroughbred sister to James R. Keene's [illegible] Foxhall will leave by the Spain on the [illegible] for Liverpool, where she will be met and taken in charge of [illegible] Farley, the leading horse breeder of Australia, at present in England. This [illegible] bred [illegible] is at present at [illegible] stock farm, where she was brought from her native place, the noted blue grass regions of Kentucky. She will be taken to Melbourne, Australia.

Cincinnati Races.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—Entries for the fall trotting meeting at Chester park beginning Sept. [illegible] ber 31. Among the entries in the free for all stallion race are Monroe Chief, Francis, [illegible] and Tonawanda.

STRIKES.

Favor the Strike.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 2.—After a meeting [illegible] of the Amalgamated association [illegible] members [illegible]

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Cabinet Situation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Secretary [illegible] [illegible] President's [illegible] [illegible] with a friend, Lincoln took occasion to refer to the talk about the impending cabinet changes and expressed himself freely and emphatically, saying there was the greatest good feeling and cordiality between the President and each member of the cabinet, and all talk about a cabinet break up was [illegible] unfounded but absurd. If Secretary Folger is nominated for governor of New York he [illegible] resign, but if he should not be nominated there is not the slightest likelihood of a change in the treasury department. The object of Folger's visit to Colorado was to attend the mining exposition at Denver and as a prospective success of [illegible]. One of his friends says Teller has no idea of leaving the cabinet to enter the senatorial race, for had such been his desire he would not have left the senate to enter the cabinet. The rumor that Postmaster General Howe is to withdraw from the cabinet is fully as improbable as any other suggestion.

After Sergeant Mason's Release.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Mr. Bigelow, Sergeant Mason's counsel, intends soon to apply for a writ of habeas corpus in the United States district court for the northern district of New York, if his client is not released upon Judge Advocate General Swaim's opinion recently submitted to the secretary of war. General Swaim, in this opinion, holds in brief that the court martial had not jurisdiction to try Mason, and there is no evidence in the case tending to show Mason committed the offense charged against him. One of Bigelow's points in his petition for a writ will be that the secretary of war has no judicial authority to overrule the opinion of the judge advocate general.

Important Signal Service Work.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The chief signal officer of the army has issued the following important notice: "A system of warning for frosts which threaten tobacco growing sections of the United States will begin Sept. 1st and continue until Nov. 1st, or until a killing frost has occurred. When a frost is anticipated in any district notification of the fact will be telegraphed from this office and if possible 48 hours in advance. The telegram will define as clearly as practicable the region where frost is anticipated and state the time it may be expected. Telegrams will be sent to different centers according to a schedule deposited in the telegraph division, and indications from there addressed to all centers where there are stations of the signal service to the observer in charge, and at other centers to the manager of the Western Union telegraph company. The lists will be modified as occasion renders it necessary. Officers charged with the special duties will take the necessary action.

Looking after Venus.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Adam Smith's U. S. coast and geodetic survey party for observing the transit of Venus left to-day for New Zealand. They will be joined at Omaha by Prof. Pritchell, his principal assistant, and after reaching New Zealand and completing observations there he will proceed to Japan for the purpose of making pendulum observations.

Chinese Decision.

Acting secretary of the treasury French has rendered a decision that Chinese merchants residing in the United States who go to China are required under the laws to obtain certificates from their own government in order to return to this country, the same as Chinese merchants coming here for the first time.

Washington Notes.

Mr. Ezeldt, of the U. S. bureau, has gone to Carson City to investigate the charges made against Superintendent Crawford of the Carson mint by a discharged employe.

The attorney general this afternoon submitted to the secretary of war his opinion that the reclamation of Potomac flats can begin before the question of title to Kidwell meadows and other spots to be improved is settled.

At close of business to-day United States called bonds had been redeemed at the treasury as follows: Under the 106th call, $19,839,150; under the 107th call $1,768,300, under the 108th call $4,568,050; under the 109th call $4,798,300, under 110th call $4,661,050, under 111th call $46,263,000, under 112th call $13,[illegible], under 113th call $10,476,550, under 114th call $12,[illegible]; total $78,458,600.

YELLOW FEVER.

At Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Sept. 2.—No new cases; one death, J. M. Graham. Total to date, nineteen cases and six deaths. These figures are official.

PENSACOLA, Sept. 3.—No new cases are reported and no death during the past 24 hours. Two cases reported had black vomit to-day and recovery is impossible.

On the Increase.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 2.—One hundred and three new cases and five deaths, all Mexicans. Many Americans are dangerously sick. Dr. Murray and force are doing good service. The fever is abating in Matamoras, there being only four deaths. No new cases in Fort Brown. Weather cloudy with light northeast winds.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 3.—The fever is reported very bad at San Fernando. The official report at Brownsville shows one hundred and three new cases and five deaths; thirty cases of fever at Point Isabel, and five or six deaths so far. Most of the cases are light. There were two or three cases yesterday. Americans are generally improving. Dr. Melon is out again and convalescent.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 3.—Fever continues to increase, and for the twenty-four hours ending at ten o'clock this morning, seventy new cases and four deaths were reported. Since then Henry Bullock, a prominent merchant, has died. Weather cold and damp, with some rains at intervals. The outlook is not favorable.

MATAMORAS, Sept. 3.—The epidemic is slowly on the decrease to-day. Weather cool and cloudy, which helps decrease the fever. A small number of new cases occurred during the day ending at 9 A. M. Only eight deaths occurred in the city.

HAVANA, Sept. 2.—Thirteen deaths from yellow fever in the past week.

The Week's Sickness.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The summary of the progress of yellow fever for the week ending Saturday, at Brownsville, as furnished by the surgeon general of the marine hospital services, gives the following figures: For the week, 482 cases and 26 deaths. Surgeon Murray of the marine hospital services arrived at Brownsville August 27th, with assistant nurses and supplies. He immediately organized a hospital for 60 patients. One of his assistants was detailed to Point Isabel, where some cases were reported. The outer cordon, extending from Laredo to Corpus Christi, has been strengthened during the week, and a protective cordon established 30 miles from Brownsville, extending from Santa Maria, on the Rio Grande, to the mouth of the Arroyo Colorado, on the gulf. No known cases of fever exist north of Arroyo Colorado at this date, nor have any refugees escaped quarantine at the outer cordon. Two cases of yellow fever left Brownsville for the north before the cordon was established, but were stopped and detained by the guard. They subsequently died south of the cordon. Great destitution prevails at Brownsville. The mayor is about to issue another appeal for aid. Many of the poor decline to go to the hospital. The population of Brownsville at the beginning of the epidemic was 5000.

Yellow Fever on Shipboard.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—The steamer Ardianthan from Porto Rico has five cases of yellow fever on board.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Lars Eclund and Oscar Anderson, brothers-in-law, employed in an iron foundry in this city, Saturday night left the city for South Evanston, twelve miles north, to spend the night with a third brother-in-law named Rand. A quarrel over some unknown cause arose and they got off the train at Rodgers' Park, and at 11 o'clock at night Anderson appeared at Rand's alone and retired. At 4 o'clock this morning Rand, hearing a shot in the basement, went down and found Anderson with a bullet wound in his breast. Anderson confessed he murdered Eclund the night before. Rand and Anderson went to the police station and the former went in to tell the story, but when he came out Anderson had gone. Late this afternoon his body was found hanging from a tree on the lake shore. His clothes were wet, showing a previous attempt at drowning and strips of cloth strewn around showed Anderson had made one or two futile attempts to hang himself before he got strips torn from a pair of overalls strong enough to hold his weight. In the meantime the body of Eclund was found at Rodgers' Park with three bullet wounds in it.

A Negro Outrage.

OMAHA, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Copeland, aged 55, living near Brownsville, Nebraska, was today outraged by a negro named Lloyd, who was employed on her husband's farm. Mrs. Copeland was brutally treated and may not recover, owing to her being in poor health. Lloyd was pursued, arrested, given a preliminary examination, and is now in jail. There is strong talk of lynching him.

Confessing their Crime.

KEWANEE, Ill., Sept. 2.—At the preliminary examination of J. O. Scott, of St. Louis, for complicity in the robbery of the First National Bank, J. W. Pearl, assistant cashier, admitted that he took $[illegible] in gold from the vaults the Saturday previous. Edward N. Welch also made a full confession of his part in the crime.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Several Mobs Rioting in the Streets of Dublin.

ALL THE CITY POLICE RESIGN THEIR COMMISSIONS.

British Troops Entrenching at Kassassin—30,000 Arabs Marching from Telpon to Join Arabi—English at Alexandria Becoming Exhausted by Sickness.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—[illegible] sent to the chief secretary offering [illegible] men who were discharged [illegible] return to duty.

LATER.—[illegible] reinstated are to waive all other claims pending the meeting of the commissioners to consider their grievances. The police will hold a mass meeting to-night to discuss the answer which is expected to this communication, or as they term it "the ultimatum." The law officers are of the opinion that services of Orangemen may be accepted as special constables, but of course in their capacity of citizens and not as Orangemen.

The Dublin Situation.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—It is stated that in event of terms not being made with the authorities four or five hundred policemen have arranged to sail in a special steamer to Queensland. The men say that 800 men of the Royal Irish Constabulary have refused to do duty in Dublin, and that they have received a telegram on the part of the entire body of the constabulary, stating they will not do duty in Dublin while the difficulties of the metropolitan forces remain unsettled.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—Several men were fined for intimidating policemen who did their duty with the military last evening.

Lord Spencer is consulting with the chief of police and his officers. Arrangements for police duty seems incomplete.

Fifty mounted policemen have resigned and the rest of them have refused to do duty. The gates of the lower yard of the castle are closed and a large crowd has collected outside. Cavalry and infantry are under arms at the castle.

LATER.—The strike now seems to be on the eve of settlement. The men who resigned sent a memorial to the castle this evening expressing deep regret at their action and respectfully asking Lord Spencer to consider their case.

Lord Spencer replied: "If they returned to duty this evening their case would receive the fullest consideration." A number of men returned to their posts and a large proportion of to-night's relief follow on duty. This result has unquestionably saved the city from scenes of rioting, as many special constables who have come forward have been utterly unable to cope with the disorder. Early this evening the lord mayor issued a proclamation thanking the citizens for their peaceful and orderly conduct, and stating he had unshaken confidence in their patriotism and selfrespect. Altogether 700 special constables were sworn in during the day, but resumption of duty by the regular police has obviated the necessity for their employment.

Lord Spencer's Speech.

Lord Spencer, addressing the special constables in the castle yard, said: "Gentlemen, I came here to address you under very unequal and anxious circumstances. I regret that any very gross act of disobedience has taken place among portions of the metropolitan police. I deeply regret this occurrence among a force, which all citizens of Dublin and myself have always been so proud of, and who have always shown such devoted loyalty to the queen, and such energy in the discharge of their duties, which have often been of a most difficult and trying character. Unfortunately they have adopted a course which I must call insubordination and disobedience of designing men, some in the force, and some outside. It would be impossible for any government to treat such acts in any other manner than I have done in this case. I am desirous to rely solely upon the regulars, but I appeal to all loyal men of all creeds to come forward and support law and order in this moment of considerable anxiety and doubt. I thank you for your prompt action in coming forward so soon on such short notice. I am certain you will perform your novel duties efficiently and well. The government will do all in its power to meet your requirements, and will not interfere unduly with your business transactions. You will be employed mostly in the discharge of duties where you reside, and will take turns doing your respective duties." Loud cheers for the queen.

No Settlement Made.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—A meeting of policemen, at which all dismissed men and those who resigned were present, was held this evening. Canon Pope spoke. He urged the police to submit to the authorities and assist those who had resigned to return to their duty and petition for reinstatement of the dismissed men. They unanimously refused this advice. They said they were willing to return to duty the moment the dismissed men were reinstated, and assurances were given them that their grievances would be considered. If any disturbances occur the responsibility would be with the police commissioners. A serious disturbance occurred to-night in Stephens street. A number of special constables, who had a drunken man in charge, were attacked and one badly wounded.

Serious Action of the Mob.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—At midnight the city was in a most excited state. Military to-night charged on the mob surrounding O'Connell statue and cleared the spot. A posse of police on duty on Sackville street are making frequent charges in order to clear the sides of the streets. There is much stone throwing, and several arrests made, and both military and police are much hooted, but show great forbearance. It is stated the police have expressed their determination to again throw off their uniforms Monday if the dismissed men are not reinstated.

Refused the Offer.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—Queensland immigration agents have refused to accept one pound per head offered by five hundred policemen for passage to Queensland.

The Streets Quiet.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3—MIDNIGHT.—The crowds have dispersed and the streets are quiet. Soldiers have been withdrawn. The memorial from the dismissed policemen asking for reinstatement has been signed by 197 of the 234 dismissed men. A miscreant to-night placed a dirty tin box on the head of the bronze statue of King William III., and the windows of College green telegraph station have been broken. H. B. M. gunboat Forrester lies at custom house dock, not far from Sackville street.

The Strike Ended.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—The police strike is virtually ended. The superintendent in an interview with the dismissed men advised them to draw a memorial, asking that they be reinstated, and acknowledge they committed a breach of discipline. This memorial will be submitted to the authorities this evening, and there is little doubt the men will be reinstated with the understanding their grievances will be investigated. Several street robberies were committed last night. The wounds of several parties injured in the street melee were dressed at the hospital, but no injuries of a serious nature are reported.

Recruits Asked for.

In George street, to-night, a tram car in which a special constable had taken refuge was wrecked by a mob. The gunboat Forrester has arrived at Kingstown, where disorders are apprehended, and authorities advertise to-morrow for recruits. This action it is believed indicates the dismissed policemen will not be reinstated. At 11 o'clock to-night the streets are much quieter.

Rioting Recommenced.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—About fourteen persons, wounded in the street fight are in the hospital. Five hundred special constables were sworn in today. The mob to-day attacked a special constable and the latter fired three shots, and wounded a man dangerously. The mob thereupon attempted to lynch the constable and handled him so roughly that he is not expected to recover. To-night the mob became very violent and was charged on by the troops and several persons wounded. Government officers are in charge of the troops.

[illegible] continued falling to bring off the captured guns from Kassassin. The heavy cavalry made a brilliant and successful charge but lost their heads in the excitement of the chase after the flying Egyptians, and permitted the enemy to withdraw twelve cannon, whose gunners the English had sabered.

Notes from the Front.

ISMAILIA, Sept. 2.—Engineers have overcome the difficulty of getting water by digging holes in the sand by the side of the canal, and the water when filtered through the sand is fairly clear. The camp at Mahmoud has been raised because of bad odors, and another camp has been formed two miles further on.

An Egyptian engineer, who was found wounded after lying 18 hours on the Kassassin battle ground, stated that Arabi Pasha informed the men who participated in that fight that there were only two weak British regiments at the front, and there was plenty of time to drive Christians into the sea. The officer thinks Arabi's army is utterly demoralized. He says Egyptian generals invariably place their irregulars in front in order that regulars may fire upon them if they show cowardice. This statement is confirmed by what has been seen and by the fact that almost all prisoners in the hands of British are irregulars.

Egyptians had advanced their post between Kassassin and Tel el Keber, but it was stated in camp to-day their troops had been withdrawn by Arabi.

The British are taking supplies, but everything is paid for.

Arabi Pasha's line extends from El Karabin by Kinulah to Tel el Keber. His position has been thoroughly reconnoitered by British cavalry.

ISMAILIA, Sept. 3.—Emissaries of Sultan Pasha are doing their utmost to inform the people of Dandeits that those who lay down their arms will be leniently treated.

The Situation of the Combatants.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 3.—The British troops remain in the same position in which they were at last report. Arabi Pasha's outposts are two miles distant. The British armored train is now completed and fitted up ready for action.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 3.—One Indian seven pound mountain battery has arrived. Stores are being fast brought up, and engineers are busy entrenching the camp of defense. A forward movement is daily expected.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Wolseley telegraphs from Ismailia that his troops are in high spirits and eager to be led forward. Supplies in front are ample.

A False Alarm.

Yesterday an alarm was given that the enemy were advancing across Lake Mareotis. Sailors and marines were landed to repel them, but the report proved false. The waterworks did not give the promised supply to-day.

A Vain Hope.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 3.—The British position here is so formidable, it is hoped Arabi Pasha may test his strength against it.

The Spoils of War.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 1.—News has been received from the interior that Arabi Pasha is selling European property to the natives and several well known properties belonging to Europeans have been confiscated and sold and the names of native purchasers given.

Returned the Compliment.

ISMAILIA, Sept. 1.—After return of the Indian cavalry from a reconnoitering expedition yesterday morning, the enemy's cavalry returned the visit by galloping and surveying Kassassin at a distance.

Plundered by Bedouins.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 2.—A wounded Arab officer states that hardly had the British cavalry swept through the Arab ranks in the fight here recently, when a horde of Bedouins poured in and began to strip and rob the dead and wounded of both sides, killing any of the wounded who were able to resist.

Colonel Tulloch is trying to win the confidence of the peasants, one of whom has brought in over 100 sheep and sold them to the army. Many prisoners are simple farmers. Several of them have been released and invited to come in with vegetables and establish a regular market.

General War Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 2.—Five of the mustaphezines have been arrested for having plunder in their possession.

The khedive shortly intends to reorganize the police and suppress the mustaphezines.

It is stated Mahmoud Fehmy has promised to furnish the khedive with a written report of the position and force of the enemy.

The man of war Minotaur shelled the enemy's lines between Ramleh and Aboukir early this morning.

It is believed General Wolseley will attack the enemy Sunday early, with a view of overwhelming the rebellion at one stroke.

The shelling by the Minotaur was against a force of infantry and cavalry drawn out by the reconnoissance of British mounted infantry.

Alexandria Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 2.—The Agincourt's launch, which was close to shore on Saturday, fired several shots at the enemy's entrenchments. The latter replied with a well-directed fire, whereupon the monitor sent a heavy shell into their midst and dispersed the enemy.

A correspondent visited Meks Saturday, and found that work on the entrenchments there has ceased, and that about 6000 of the enemy had been withdrawn.

To-day three Europeans went on a boating excursion, and landed near Fort Dekilah, west of Meks. Three shells were fired at them, and one excursionist and one of the crew, a native, wounded. Officers of the British man-of-war Bittern observed the incident, and ordered a boat lowered, and sent a rescuing party.

Arab cavalry pickets are reconnoitering the British outposts. General Wood and staff inspected the enemy's camp Sunday, viewing from the top of Count Zizena's house.

Dying of Dysentery.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 3.—The English soldiers at Meks are suffering from diarrhea and dysentery, caused by bad water in the forts. Bedouins continue intrenching their position on the Aboukir side of Alexandria in close proximity to the British outposts. The khedive has given the British necessary permission to cut dykes at Meks, thus inundating Lake Mareotis and preventing an attack by the enemy from that side. Experts who have been consulted feel satisfied that this operation will not interfere with lands under cultivation in Behria provinces.

Col. Salahad, the new Russian consul-general, arrived to-day, and had an audience with the khedive. He proceeds to Ismailia to-morrow.

Advices from Cairo state great anxiety is felt there lest the prefect of police be unable to maintain order despite his unceasing effort. The populace menace the few remaining Europeans and threaten wholesale plunder.

"Le Temps" Opinion.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—The Temps, in an article on the Egyptian question, maintains the British expedition will benefit France even more than England. The awakening of the power of England proves that Europe is not reduced to the leadership of one power —Germany. This circumstance will benefit none so much as France, which is the natural ally of England. By separating from her we afford opportunity to Germany, whose omnipotence can only be opposed by an Anglo-Franco alliance.

The Egyptian Crops To-Day.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 3.—A meeting was held Friday to consider the position of the September and October contracts for cotton and seeds. It has been found impossible, in the present state of the country, to make deliveries in those months, and a commission of principal merchants and bankers is formed to ascertain the exact position of the market and report within 14 days. New cotton should be arriving now, but the crop of 1882 is behind and deficient, owing to the absence of labor and irrigation, and under the most favorable circumstances a large deficiency is expected and reported.

A large quantity of arms and ammunition has been found in a mosque here.

Only four per cent. of the troops here are sick.

Arabi's Conduct Praised.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—DeLesseps speaking to-day to a deputation of friends, said he had been described as an enemy of England and friend of Arabi Pasha, but he was simply a friend and defender of the work of civilization. He said Arabi Pasha's honorable conduct in regard to the Suez canal ought to be acknowledged.

De Lesseps Satisfied.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.—A dispatch from Paris to the Herald says: DeLesseps who has just returned here in an interview on Egyptian affairs said the first fact that should be known regarding the Egyptian matter is that the movement is a national one. He is satisfied Arabi has the whole nation at his back. His force at present is between 25,000 and 30,000 Arabs. He has arms for 200,000 and when he needs men can get them. DeLesseps had every reason to be satisfied with the manner in which Arabi behaved towards the canal. The English had no need of the canal for their operation. The Arabs had not placed a price on his head. On the contrary after the English had landed at Suez he knew it was not his fault and gave him notice that the Sweet water canal would be cut. English sailors had behaved very badly, firing right and left on the streets and killing many Arab women and children and one of De Lesseps' own employes. The English army was very well organized, but he thinks the war will be a long one. Its final result cannot now be foreseen. No serious operations could be undertaken until the hot weather and overflow of the Nile were ended in October. It was not true Arabi had mutilated the English dead and wounded. He had heard nothing of that from officers in Egypt. England had been long intending to get her finger into Egypt on one pretext or another and the whole trouble has been caused by the intrigues of Arabi, [illegible] and for the purpose of giving England this opportunity. He had not seen any of the actual fighting, but there had been many more killed and wounded among the English than reported. There were also many cases of sunstroke and some cholera. [illegible]

War Criticism.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The [illegible] Wolseley. First, because, from it knowing Arabi's greatest strength was in artillery, he refrained from taking more than four or five guns into action. The continental papers condemn Wolseley for neglecting to use artillery, and some Gaps to be Filled.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—It is stated General Wolseley has telegraphed authorities that it is unnecessary to prepare a third army corps, as he only requires a few reinforcements to fill up gaps.

Cause of the Water Failure.

The failure of the water supply is owing to the falling in of some ruins by which the water main was injured. The usual amount of water will be supplied to-morrow.

More Troops.

PORT SAID, Sept. 2.—The troop ships Orontes and Malabar, and steamer Osmanli, the latter with mules and forage, have entered the canal. The health of troops and sailors is excellent.

Signs of Discontent.

ISMAILIA, Sept. 2.—It is reported on good authority that the commandant at Tel el Keber is inclined to abandon the cause of Arabi Pasha.

Mule Inspectors.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—A number of veterinary surgeons have been sent to Italy, Spain, Smyrna and New York to inspect mules purchased for use in Egypt.

Sailed for Egypt.

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 2.—The Monarch of the Tyne has sailed for Egypt with 1200 men.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—M. M. Estee, republican nominee for governor, and most of the other candidates, were met by about 2000 people at the ferry on their arrival this evening, and escorted with music and fireworks to the Palace hotel. The candidates addressed the crowd briefly from the balcony of the court, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion.

Captain Brown, of the ferry steamer Oakland, has been suspended for carelessness in connection with the recent collision with the steamer Newark.

Journeymen printers of the city have demanded and obtained from bosses shortening of hours on Saturday, and now knock off at 4 P. M. on that day.

Plumbers and gasfitters met to-night to organize a strike for $4 a day, but deferred action until the next meeting a few days hence.

During the week just past 95 deaths were recorded at the health office—60 males and 35 females.

Last evening the Canadian society met and appointed a committee of arrangements to confer with like committees from other societies relative to the reception to be given to the Marquis of Lorne and his wife, Princess Louise, on their arrival in San Francisco.

The British bark Isle of Anglesea still lies at the sea wall where her cargo is being discharged as rapidly as circumstances permit. Nothing further is known of the extent of damages incurred in going on Arch rock. Whether the water has come in contact with her cargo or not will not be known for some days. It is thought her cargo will all be out about Wednesday, when the vessel will go into the dry dock.

The bark Dublin which went ashore on the beach south of Cliff house still occupies her original position. It is expected her deck load, lumber and rigging will be saved.

It was expected that the new and magnificent steamer Queen of the Pacific would take the place of the Columbia in her trip to Portland, but it was ascertained the freight elevators were not in condition to permit her unloading and loading in time, so the plan had to be relinquished. The Queen will be open for inspection of the public some day the present week.

Coroner Weeks makes the following report for the month of August: Number of cases investigated, 38; of these were murders, 4; suicides, 2; found dead, 1; still born, 3; natural causes, 17; accidental, 11.

Serious Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—About 6 o'clock this evening three children belonging to Mike McCarthy, foreman at the San Jose gas works, were very seriously injured by the explosion of a one-pound can of powder. They had taken the can into the street and were playing with it, when one of them lit a match and touched it off. All were very severely burned about the head and face, and the right hand and forearm of one of them, a girl about 7 years of age, burned so badly that amputation will be necessary, and it is very doubtful if she can recover. The oldest, a boy about 10, is said to be so dangerously hurt that he cannot recover.

California Nominations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The second railroad district convention nominated Charles Clayton of San Francisco for railroad commissioner.

The state convention passed resolutions thanking its officers and adjourned sine die.

The fourth congressional district convention nominated by acclamation Charles W. Dana of San Luis Obispo for member of the state board of equalization; and ex-Governor Woods of Oregon, now of Santa Clara county, for congressman.

Fire at Hanford, Cal.

HANFORD, Sept. 3.—Hanford had its fire this morning at 3 o'clock. It destroyed totally six buildings on Danty street, between Sixth and Seventh streets. These included W. R. Dike's saloon and contents, loss $2000, insurance $1200; Delta office, loss $700, insurance $450; R. Mills' saloon, loss $1500, insurance $900; Simon Jacobs & Co.'s building, $1000, insurance $600; E. Schwartz, $8000, insurance $4000; D. L. Healy, $1000, insurance $1000; J. M. Camp's butcher shop, $200, no insurance; J. J. Cartner, $850, insurance $400; material in China restaurant, $50, no insurance. But for the absence of wind and abundant supply of water most of the business part of town would have been destroyed.

A Foolish Suicide.

NEVADA, Sept. 3.—A man named Trapp attempted to commit suicide at Washington in this county, yesterday, by a novel method. Arranging four or five giant powder cartridges upon the ground he then lay down upon them and lighting the fuse awaited the result. Only one of the cartridges exploded, breaking both arms of the would be suicide. Trapp was brought to the county hospital at this place, where he now lies in a very critical condition. It is thought his injuries will prove fatal.

ARIZONA.

Work of the Devilish Apaches.

TUCSON, Sept. 2.—Star's advices from Nogales say Apaches are depredating fearfully in this locality and twenty miles southeast. This week they attacked Michilano's ranch, killed a man, his wife and father and took a little girl and beat her head against the side of the house, leaving her for dead. She has recovered sufficiently to recite fearful acts of cruelty on her mother before the red devils killed her. They took all the stock on the ranche. A party of Mexicans followed and overtook the Indians near Buena Vista, where they were attacked and driven back, the Indians greatly outnumbering them. Tuesday the ranche of Bado Sacto was attacked by the same band, killing one man and wounding another. Wednesday morning Cutis ranche was jumped and Pedro, Chiesta and Altimiano killed and most of the stock driven off. The Apaches have divided into two bands. Mexican soldiers and citizens are pressing in on them from all sides.

NEVADA.

Nevada's Convention.

RENO, Sept. 3.—The town is full of delegates to the state republican convention, which meets to-morrow. General Evans has headquarters at the Arcade, Kinkead at the Depot hotel and Strother at the Palace. Ex-Governor Blaisdell and Wm. Woodburn are here in the capacity of dark horses.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Republican Primaries.

PORT TOWNSEND, W. T., Sept. 3.—Republican primaries held last night in Jefferson, Clallam and San Juan counties were virtually unanimous in favor of T. T. Minor for delegate to congress. In the largest primary ever held in Port Townsend all but three votes were in his favor.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Sept. 3.—Much interest was manifested in the primaries in Thurston county yesterday on the question of delegate to congress. No figures are received from outside precincts. The highest vote in the Olympia precinct for Brents was 30 and the lowest 20. The highest on the opposition was 34 and the lowest 08.

Seattle Notes.

SEATTLE, W. T., Sept. 2.—Coal exports from this city to San Francisco during August aggregated 9060 tons. Puget Sound sawmills shipped to foreign ports last month a little over 5,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at $80,000. Shipments coastwise aggregated about 20,000,000 feet during the month.

The republican primaries were held in this city this evening. The whole vote cast numbered 369, or about one-half the vote it is expected the republicans will poll at the ensuing election.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A General Strike in View.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 2.—At a conference of miners held here to-day it was decided to demand an advance in wages, and if the increase was not obtained by that act to make a general stand for their terms throughout the kingdom.

It was recommended that a political association be formed among the miners with a view of supporting candidates for parliament who are favorable to the changes sought for by miners in mining legislation. It was also resolved to erect a marble statue in memory of McDonald in front of Miners' hall at Durham.

English Notes.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Chamberlain, president of the board of trade, Wilkie Collins and John Bright have joined the committee which proposes to place the bust of Longfellow in Westminster abbey.

Mr. Gulstan has accepted the invitation to act as umpire in the race between the Hillsdale crew and the crew of the Thames rowing club.

Cetewayo has gone home, taking with him loads of incongruous presents from enthusiastic admirers. He had shawls for his wives, jack-knives for his sons, and even bulldogs.

The government's treatment of Cetewayo has encouraged Maharajah Dhuleepsingh to demand compensation for his disturbance at Punjaub thirty-five years ago. The government has already treated him handsomely on all matters of finance.

The tide of homeward travel to the United States has set in, and is now so enormous that every city in western Europe is full, and in Paris it is almost impossible to obtain a bedroom. Never before, it is the universal belief, have so many Americans been in Paris as there are now. More English is now spoken than French in the chief resorts of the French capital, and comical laments are made in Parisian papers over the Americanizing of the city, and driving off the native population out into the remote suburbs. They do not seem so very much exaggerated either. Atlantic steamers are so full that passage to New York cannot be got all through this month.

Turkish Topics.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 2.—[illegible]

It is announced [illegible] communication between Constantinople and Athens [illegible] all hostilities on the Turco-Greek frontier have ceased. The Porte affirms that the Greeks were defeated in all encounters that have taken place since Sunday. The disputed point will be settled by an agreement between Said Pasha, Turkish minister [illegible] for Foreign Affairs, and the Greek minister to Turkey. They had a meeting to-day.

A New Point Raised.

Said Pasha proposed to Lord Dufferin [illegible] Turkish troops be allowed to disembark at Port Said, instead of Aboukir. Lord Dufferin telegraphed Lord Granville relative to the proposal. It is understood that Hobart Pasha, chief of the Turkish admiralty staff, pointed out to the porte and Lord Dufferin the impossibility of disembarkation at Aboukir, Rosetta or Damietta. Lord Dufferin has informed the porte that the local authorities at Beyrout still prevent the exportation of mules for the British army.

A Difficult Measure.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 3.—The Persian ambassador having presented the porte a note proposing combined military action against the Kurdish chief Abdullah, the porte replied the matter proposed would be attended with much difficulty, but Turkey will do its utmost to restrain Abdulla from acting in a manner hostile to Persia.

Russia and Austria Join Hands.

VIENNA, Sept. 2.—It is stated that Count von Walkenstein, Austrian Ambassador at St. Petersburg, is charged with the establishment of an intimate understanding between Russia and Austria in regard to eastern affairs, and this statement has reference to rumors current sometime ago concerning the rejected visit of the Czar to foreign courts, and more particularly to the court of Vienna.

Denies a Hostile Feeling.

ROME, Sept. 2.—The Diritto energetically denies there is any hostile feeling on the part of Italy towards England.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—M. Dechard, editor of Petit Corporal, and M. Demases, editor of Combat, fought a duel to-day with swords, and Demases was killed.

A German Celebration.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—The anniversary of the capitulation of Sedan was celebrated throughout Germany with unusual enthusiasm.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Uncle Sam's income for this year is found to be about $450,000,000.

John L. Stoddard, the lecturer, has returned from a long European trip.

General O. O. Howard is delivering temperance lectures in eastern Maine.

A bust of Lord Beaconsfield, paid for by the pennies of workingmen, has been presented to the Greenwich Club of England.

Oarsman Hanlan tells an interviewer that he does not intend to participate in the fall regattas at Saratoga, Halifax or elsewhere.

Senator Edmunds has given $5000 for the endowment of a room at the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, Vermont, in memory of his lately deceased daughter.

Mr. Ruskin wisely suggests that the "prettiest attention to an old man" is to read what he wishes to say and not to pester him with silly letters on general subjects about which he cares nothing at all.

General Stoneman, the democratic candidate for governor of California, began a speech at San Rafael the other day by remarking: "Fellow citizens: It is a well known fact in history that great generals are poor talkers, and I am one of them."

General Spinner is fishing in Florida, with great success. He baits with his signature, and the fish that can distinguish it from the writhingest kind of a worm has to be an expert of many years standing. At Mayport the other day the general rushed into the sea and beat off a number of sharks that were attacking a saw-fish. The latter, which was caught, was 15 feet long.

J. B. McCullagh, editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, talks entertainingly when interviewed. In Denver the other day a reporter of the News seized Mr. McCullagh by the button-hole. "What about Arthur for '84?" asked the reporter. "No show," said the editor. "Those infernal half-breeds and civil service reformers are bound to destroy the republican party if they can't get everything in sight and they will have something to say in the convention." "Is Grant out of the race?" "Yes, for good." "How will Pennsylvania go in November?" "I'm afraid the state is past praying for."

FLIRTING ON SARATOGA BALCONIES.

The Use of Umbrellas and the Misplaced Confidence of Matrons.

Eli Perkins in N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

As the great crowd thickens here I find the aristocratic mothers at the States have harder work to watch their flirting daughters. The balconies down at the Union are darker than they are at the States, and our girls will run away from their mothers and go down there to flirt. It is a very democratic flirting crowd down there, and a young lady can sit there under an umbrella with a young fellow and no one notices it. Yesterday when I went down there, though the day was clear, and neither sun nor rain could harm a lady's hat, there were [illegible] umbrellas on one balcony. Not a [illegible] was to be seen. Not a voice was heard. I went along by the umbrella and said:

"Ahem! ahem! Ahem!" [illegible] it cleared my throat.

Immediately I heard seventeen young fellows say carelessly, as if they had been talking on that subject all day:

"Yes, Miss Mollie, I think it will rain to-morrow."

Twenty-eight young ladies looked at the sky and said, "We have had an awful hot summer, haven't we, Mr. Smith?"

Thirty-two young ladies hummed airs from "Patience," and seven fellows whistled "Old John Brown's Body."

As soon as I passed down the balcony it was all still again. Not a sound was heard—not a hum—not a whistle.

I went back to the States and told our aristocratic mothers how I found things down at the Grand Union. At first they said:

"It can't be our Susie. She's up-stairs with little Johnny," or "It isn't our Mary—she went to bed early;" but I noticed seventy-two of our mothers started straight for the Union. As soon as they got there the 482 umbrellas began to wave in the wind. In eight minutes every umbrella was closed, and in seventeen minutes 322 young ladies, with blushing faces, tangled crimps, and downcast eyes, filed through our middle hall to the elevator.

A GERMAN AUTHOR'S DEATH.

Dr. Franz Hoffmann's Career as a Writer of Juvenile Fiction.

The death of Dr. Franz Hoffmann, formerly a favorite Jugendschriftsteller throughout Germany, is announced in late papers from that country. He died at Dresden July 17, in the 69th year of his age. His innumerable works of fiction for young people were for 25 years very attractive wherever German juvenile literature was current. Several of them were published in this country, both in English and German. He laid aside his pen in 1854, and since then has resided in Dresden, enjoying a moderate competence acquired by his writings. The university of Leipsic conferred on him the degree of doctor of philosophy. His widow, a French lady, survives him; also three daughters, all married, one of whom was with him at Dresden; another is the wife of Professor Ledemann of the Michigan state normal school, the other is the wife of Alpha Child, the editor of a Watertown, N. Y., paper. He had two sons, one of whom, in the German naval service, was lost at sea; the other lost his life in the Union army, in the Kentucky campaign of 1862.

FOR SALE!

[illegible] Stock Farm

—AND—

Valuable Timber Land.

50 Dairy Cows, 2 three-quarter Jersey Bulls, 2 Horses, 1 Yoke Oxen, 2 Milk Wagons, Farm and Dairy Implements and Furniture, 50 Tons Hay.

The above Valuable Property is for Sale at a very low appraisement, viz: $[illegible], one-third of which can stand on Mortgage.

It is situated on Lewis and Clark's river, 7 miles south of Astoria, and 2½ miles from Clatsop beach. There is a good steamboat landing which is accessible to the O. R. & N. Co.'s river steamboats. About half of the 700 acres is tide land, well bridged, on which cattle keep fat the year round. The other half, level timber land, and about 200 acres in tame grass. Thousand of cords of hemlock, fir and spruce can be cut, worth two dollars and a half at the landing to which there is a good wagon road from all points. Every cord cut finds a ready market. In addition, there is any quantity of mill lumber and good piles. Good dwelling house, barn, and necessary outhouses, with an orchard of 10 or 12 acres, containing almost all kinds of fruit bearing trees, etc., etc. This desirable property has a frontage of two miles on the river bank, and is admirably adapted for settlement by a company desiring to colonize, as it is large enough to divide into several farms and homesteads. The contemplated bridge between Astoria and Clatsop plains connects on this property. Party wishing to sell is now supplying Astoria with milk, and if desired will hand over good will and business to the purchaser of the property.

If not sold before September 10th, at private sale, the whole property will be sold by catalogue sale, at Public Auction, to the highest bidders for cash, on Friday, September 15, 1882, at 11 A. M., on the premises. Title Warranty Deed.

Sellwood.

A Beautiful Suburban Town on the East Shore of the Willamette.

The Best Opportunity of the Time for a Home.

The streets and avenues of this beautiful site are being rapidly cleared, and lots and blocks are now ready for sale.

The Advantages to Residents

Are rapid and direct ferry communication with the city, almost level and easily cleared ground, good soil, and the facility for furnishing pure water.

The Steam Ferry

Which the Company guarantees for two years, will, in a pleasant ride of twenty minutes, land you where you can buy a lot for one-tenth the sum asked for one in twenty minutes' walk from the business center of Portland; and in the spring, when the large and swift steamer for which the Company is negotiating is put on, the trip will be reduced to fifteen minutes each way, at the nominal fare of five cents.

Other Means of Access.

No other site near Portland has been improved so lavishly by its proprietors as Sellwood, for the convenience of purchasers and residents. Streets have been opened and cleared, and a plank road from the river to the railroad station at Willsburg is projected, and grading and planking of part of it has been ordered this year, connecting, by a ferry soon to be put on, with Fulton and the macadam road. This road will also cross the East Portland and Oregon City road, so that means of access by railroads, steamer and wagon roads will be unequaled.

Pure Spring Water.

As soon as a sufficient number of lots have been sold to justify it, the best of spring water will be brought through the town, the creek which crosses the eastern length of the site furnishing ample power for the purpose.

The Sellwood Ferry Guaranteed.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sellwood Real Estate Co., held August 21, 1882, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED, That the Sellwood Real Estate Company hereby guarantee that they will keep a Ferry in operation between the town of Sellwood and Portland at present prices to residents of Sellwood for a period of two years, except when unavoidable accidents cause temporary suspension." H. L. PITTOCK, President.

F. C. GOODIN, Sec'y.

Prices of Lots.

Payable in monthly installments of $10 each:

Corner lots in blocks 1 to 12, $[illegible]; inside lots $[illegible].

Corner lots in blocks 13 to 21, [illegible]; inside lots [illegible].

Corner lots in blocks 22 to 112, [illegible]; inside lots [illegible].

Ten per cent. discount made to the purchaser of a block.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 4, 1882.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.

Another plain statement of facts will further illustrate the character of J. H. Mitchell as a lawyer and a man. October 3 1867, Mrs. Sarah A. Thomas died in East Portland, leaving a husband, J. L. Thomas, and two children, one aged four years, another five weeks. At her death she was in possession of and the owner of a house and two lots in East Portland, which afforded herself, her husband and her children a home. This property is now worth, probably, not less than five or six thousand dollars, and is rapidly increasing in value. At the time of her death Mrs. Thomas did not owe a cent, unless the taxes on the house and lots, amounting to $11.50, can be called a debt against her. And as to that, the rent of the house for a month would have paid them and left a balance for the benefit of the children. There being no debts against the estate, it should have gone directly by operation of law to the heirs, the two children. No administration was necessary, and a guardian only should have been appointed by the court. Section 1052 of the civil code shows that an administrator should not be appointed unless there are creditors, and there can be no creditors without debts. And section 8 of miscellaneous laws says: "Every guardian so appointed shall have the custody and tuition of the minor and care and management of his estate."

The estate could not be in two places at the same time, nor could two persons, viz., an administrator and a guardian, have charge of it at the same time. Yet we find among the files of the probate court of Multnomah county, in the handwriting of J. H. Mitchell, a petition asking that John L. Thomas be appointed administrator of said estate. It nowhere states that there were any debts or claims against the estate, which consisted solely of the said house and lots. There was no necessity for an administrator, only for a guardian to take charge of the property of the minors, as the law directs.

Why the appointment of this administrator then? The reason becomes apparent from what followed. J. L. Thomas was appointed administrator upon the petition and a lot of claims were filed for payment, not one of which was a debt against the deceased or her children. One was for a doctor's bill, another for funeral expenses, both debts against J. L. Thomas and not against the children or their estate. As well might Thomas have charged the value of a horse that had died on his hands together with the price of medicine expended in trying to cure it. But this violation of law and justice, perhaps, might have been passed over in silence as another "youthful indiscretion" or otherwise apologised for by the casual observer excepting for the astounding fact that from this estate Mitchell and Thomas paid off their private debts. Private debts of theirs were filed in the court as claims against the estate as a basis for an order to sell the lots, and Mitchell bid both in at the sale and then set off these claims as payments on the lots. How Mitchell and Thomas divided is not apparent, but that they were working together the records abundantly show. To make the matter plain and definite, we give copies of some of these private debts and fraudulent claims, viz:

{U. S. Rev. Stamp 10 cts.} $200.
Cancelled.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Oct. 4, 1867.

Four months after date without grace, we or either of us promise to pay to the order of the First National Bank of Portland, two hundred dollars for value received, with interest after maturity at the rate of one per cent. per month until paid. Principal payable in currency and interest payable in gold coin; and in case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof we promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys fees in said suit.

No. 401. Due Feb 4.
JOHN L. THOMAS.
J. H. MITCHELL.

This joint note was made and the money borrowed after Mr. Thomas was dead and yet it was filed and paid as a debt against the estate; and that, too, without any affidavit that it was a debt against the estate.

The original of the following is in the hand writing of Mitchell and on file as one of the paid claims against the estate, while on its face it appears to be an old debt of the administrator's.

"Received March 7, 1868, from J. L. Thomas, per hands J. H. Mitchell, sixty-five and 12-100 dollars, in gold coin, in full of a judgment and execution. Debt and costs of J. M. [illegible] vs. him, amounting in all to $91 72. Signed, JACOB STITZEL, Sheriff Multnomah county, Oregon."

Another of the claims filed and paid is an old debt of the administrator's, as follows:

{U. S. revenue [illegible]
two cents, cancelled.} [illegible] before the 5th day
"Due Milton [illegible] sixty-four dollars and of July, 1867, [illegible] to be paid in weekly installments twenty-four cents, [illegible]
of $8 00 per week until paid. J. L. THOMAS.
East Portland, June 29, 1867."
"OREGON IRON WORKS COMPANY.—Please pay Milton Hosford the sum of eight dollars per week on the above until paid, out of my weekly wages.
J. L. THOMAS.
East Portland, June 29, 1867."
"PORTLAND, May 1, 1868.
J. H. MITCHELL—Pay Mr. Hosford that note and take it and receipt.
J. L. THOMAS."
(Endorsed in Mitchell's handwriting.)
"Received of J. H. Mitchell $64. coin on said note.
May 2d, '68. Signed, MILTON HOSFORD."

The following is a copy of another claim of the same character, filed and paid:

"PORTLAND, May 29, 1867.
Please pay to order of Hodge, Calef & Co., the sum of twenty-five ($25) dollars, and charge to account of (J. L. Thomas.)
J. R. BOYCE."
(Endorsed)—"Accepted. J. L. Thomas."
(Endorsed in Mitchell's handwriting.)
"Received the within amount of twenty-five dollars in coin from J. H. Mitchell.
Signed. HODGE, CALEF & CO."

Here Mitchell was paying off Thomas' debts of nineteen months' standing out of the assets of the estate which belonged to the children. Thus the estate was manipulated by Mitchell, who got the house and two lots, and only $99 47 was left from the estate of a deceased mother, who did not owe a dollar.

This "insatiate thirst for greed" has only had its parallel in Mitchell's frauds perpetrated upon the Balch heirs, by which he became, likewise, possessed of their estate by means equally despicable.

A WORD TO WHEAT GROWERS.

The best varieties of wheat were produced by the careful selection of the best heads and plumpest grains to be found in the field. Those being sowed by themselves the succeeding season, and the best again preserved, a great improvement has been the result. Any farmer can do this, and it is not necessary to depend on some scientist or particular seedsman for an explanation of the proper method. On this subject Prof. A. E. Blount, of the State Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Colorado, states that farmers generally permit their wheat to retrograde one-eighth, whereas if proper care should be bestowed upon its improvement by selection alone, not one would ever find it necessary to procure better seed. It only takes two years to make wheat No. 1 and pure by selection, and from three to ten to make a successful hybrid. Wheats raised upon the soil of any locality are better than those from other points for seeding. To prove this fact Prof. Blount says: "I have sown—and am nicely growing now—this spring 181 different varieties, the seed of which I obtained from every country in the world. Many I received are winter wheats, which I have converted into spring wheats. Of all the samples received not one was good, or begin to be as good, as the poorest I now have." In other words, by careful selection the poorest wheat now is better than the best of the original lot, and this improvement has been made in one year. If it is desired to improve wheat try this method: Go over the field and select the largest heads for the best stalks. Spread the grains on a table and examine each one separately, discarding all but the best formed and fullest. Next season make a seed bed, putting one seed to a hill, one foot apart each way. Hoe well and keep clean. The result will be surprising, as the yield will be larger, the grains better and the seed clean. When, by doing this on a small piece of ground, the seed is perfected it

THE NEW YORK GOVERNORSHIP.

Judge Folger wants the nomination for governor of New York. And he wishes it to be "spontaneous." If there had been any lingering doubt as to whose candidate he was this wish would have dispelled it. The country has heard of spontaneous candidates before, and has beheld one or two instances of the sort of spontaneity they covet. General Grant was to be given a third term by this movement, it will be remembered, and after the most diligent manipulation of conventions failed to generate it. The knights of the medal held together till defeat overtook them in their support of a man who was to accept a unanimous nomination or none at all. So, too, the New York senators, after resigning their places, asked nothing but a spontaneous re-election. They would accept an overwhelming vindication, but they would not work for it. And then they and their friends, including the present president of the United States went to Albany and kept the legislature deadlocked for two weeks because they could not be chosen. When, accordingly, we read that Secretary Folger "would accept the nomination, doubtless, if tendered him, but would not scramble for the place or allow his name to be used by any faction or clique," and that he would not "sanction any wire-pulling or dickering with bosses," we may feel certain that he is perfectly sincere, that he means just what he says, without reservation; and yet we cannot fail to recognize the ear-marks of the old hand at the game who is behind his candidacy. We cannot but recall the remark made some weeks ago, that Mr. Conkling would "pull the wires" in the New York campaign. And though the puppet worker is out of sight the method of the work betrays the hand of the worker. It would be natural to suppose that two such conspicuous failures of the "spontaneous" dodge might discourage its author; but he is a man who has touching confidence in the stock phrases and methods of the old regime. It is not improbable that Judge Folger will be nominated, because of late, if reports may be trusted at this long range, the wires have been worked dilligently in his interest. But it would not be a bad idea for the party to give the "spontaneous" candidate a black eye, especially if he hails from the state of New York.

Puck has a curious and characteristic picture. The two old parties—democratic and republican—are represented as hired men working on Uncle Sam's farm. They are patched up where "steals," folly and viciousness generally have broken out, and they have stopped mowing the grass, and have thrown away their scythes to hear a political discussion. A nice, goody-goody young man has come along in the meantime, and is asking Uncle Sam, who sits foolishly on a neighboring fence, if it is not about time he should discharge the other two and try him; but with the customary practical nature of the "reformer," he has brought along a hoe to mow the grass with.

It is claimed by the strikers of J. H. Mitchell that he is a great lawyer. Every man who has practiced at the bar with him knows this to be false. He used to win cases some years ago because in Sheriff Stitzel, Clerk Parrish and Judge Upton he had servants active to do his bidding. With a change in county officers and a new judge he lost his power. In legal practice, as well as in political management, he has had always the resource of unscrupulous cunning. His corrupt operators ten years ago debauched the practice of law in Multnomah county. The Balch affair is a sample of his methods as a lawyer.

Mr. Herbert Spencer's arrival in this country will be no particular opportunity for those who desire to make a literary lion of him, for he comes solely to improve his health. His stay will not be prolonged beyond the three months' limit he has set himself, unless he finds that he derives great benefit from the change of climate. But on his return to England he may record his impressions of this country and people. Of course a literary Englishman who has visited this country, couldn't die happy until he had attended to that duty.

Hon. George L. Woods, ex-governor of this state, has been nominated for congress by the republicans of the fourth California district. Gov. Woods has had wide experience in affairs and in many stations of high trust has proved able and honest. Our California neighbors will do well to elect him.

Can any of J. H. Mitchell's friends explain how he managed for years to spend twenty thousand dollars a year in expensive living and political jobbery on the salary of a senator?

Egyptian troops are described as ragged. It was a mistake to let Cleopatra's needle go out of the country. The suffering poor have another grievance against Mr. Vanderbilt.

CITY.

Boats Withdrawn.—As the fishing season has closed, and excursion travel to the coast nearly ceased, the O. R. & N. Co. have stopped running the regular freight boat, the Chief, and Dixie Thompson between Portland and Astoria. Hereafter the steamer Manzanita leaves Portland as usual Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 6 A. M., for Astoria, with freight as well as passengers and mails for points on both sides of the river between Portland and Waterford, W. T. (55 miles), and thence on the Washington Territory shore, stopping at Skamokawa, Brookfield and way landings. Returning she will leave Astoria Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 6 A. M., and run en route to Portland. The steamer ... leaves Portland Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, taking passengers, freight and mails between Portland and Waterford, and thence along the Oregon shore to Astoria via Clifton and Knappa and way landings, leaving Astoria Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and follows the same course up the river. Both boats connect with the Northern Pacific trains at Kalama to and from Tacoma.

FROM THE FRONT.

[illegible]

Mr. Wm. Charleston, the accommodating general ... assistant, Mr. ..., paid ... a visit ...

T. M. ..., ... of ... of the N. P. R. R., has ... a telegram announcing the ... illness of his child.

Henry L. Tucker, W. F. & Co.'s route agent, passed through here ... to Missoula. He brought along eight treasure boxes and appurtenances to establish offices wherever feasible.

Captain George Pease, being somewhat indisposed, has gone to the crossing for a short vacation. During the absence of Captain Miller of the Villard will handle the wheel of the Katie Hallett.

The carpenter of this place has made a neat headboard, nicely painted and suitably inscribed, to be placed over the last resting place of poor Fitzgerald, who was so brutally murdered not long since.

Dr. Hope's veterinary hospital has moved with the company's stable. The Dr. has many equine patients. It would gladden the heart of Bergh to see how well they are cared for and how well they are doing.

Coyotes and a couple of panthers or cougars have been making night hideous about headquarters with their dismal howls. They have come in quest of remnants left about cook houses which have gone to the front.

The steamer Henry Villard is at present laid up at Ellisport. Mr. Campbell, the chief officer, and Mr. Eatkin, chief engineer, together with the assistants, have put the boat in splendid order. She now shines like a new pin.

Mr. G. W. Sayles, the engineer who was recently hurt, is doing well, and has so far recovered as to leave the hospital. No bones were fractured or dislocated. His wife arrived on the 28th and will in all probability remain here.

Mr. J. J. Hoffman, a prominent Portland butcher, is here looking out for the interest of his business. Mr. Hoffman is identified with the firm of Spaulding, Hoffman & Co. The firm has a large slaughter house on the road, and is doing a rushing business.

Assistant Superintendent Fordyce has had a barrel of water placed on each end of important trestles in his division in case of fire. A watchman is on duty night and day to signal trains in case of danger. All precautions are taken to prevent accident and make traveling safe.

Dennis Kehlber and a fellow-workman at Camp 30½, got into an altercation, resulting in Kehlber getting a knife thrust into his left side and a wound on his arm. No arrests. The wounded man was taken to the hospital and his injuries dressed by Dr. Harvey, who pronounces them not dangerous.

Francisco Isidore, an Italian working at Camp 37, did not get out of the way in time during the firing of a blast. He was struck with flying rocks, once on the head, making only a slight scalp wound, and once on the shoulder, bruising that member severely. His injuries are very painful but not of a serious nature. He was conveyed to the hospital where he is being cared for.

SAND POINT ITEMS.

Mr. Kinuk, formerly telegraph operator at Umatilla, is now agent at Dry Lake station.

Mr. Sommerville, the old-time Western Union telegraph operator, has charge of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office here.

M. J. McLaughlin has opened a store here, which is in charge of his well known assistants, J. Cameron and Ben Cranston.

Sam Sweeny, formerly of The Dalles and well known in Walla Walla, is chief clerk to Assistant Superintendent J. N. Fordyce, and is making many friends here by his courteous manner.

Mr. W. E. Hodgkins, formerly commissary agent on this road, has resigned his position and is about to take his departure for San Francisco, where for several years he was connected with the Central Pacific Railroad Company.

Sand Point seems to have taken a new lease of life. It is now quite a lively town. Mr. James Gordon's gang of carpenters are busy erecting a new depot and freight house. It will be two stories high, and when finished will present a handsome appearance, and will be quite a feature to the town.

On account of the number of Indians residing near Sand Point, and who have been obtaining a larger supply of whisky than was good for them, it was thought feasible to ask that a few soldiers might be camped here. The prayer of the citizens was granted, and a detachment is now camped at this place. There is now a feeling of safety in the community when they know that the boys in blue are amongst them.

The ... steamer Sen Farm, on her last trip from San Francisco to Yaquina bay brought a lot ... exclusively for the Oregon Pacific, in which ... eighteen tons of powder to be used by the company in rock work.

Hop picking has commenced in the hop fields near Buena Vista. Indians are arriving from the Siletz and Grand Ronde reservations. The yield will be good, and the quality was never better. Hop raisers have been offered forty cents ... and but will not sell.

A son of Judge Hayden of Polk county, was found in the ... in an unconscious condition by his father last Thursday evening. He is supposed to have been thrown from his horse. He was taken to Salem where he is receiving careful medical treatment.

As Mr. Hyde, of Harrisburg, was returning last Monday with his family, from a visit to relatives near Philomath, and just as they were about crossing the river at Corvallis, their little child, aged twenty months, was taken with violent convulsions. It was taken to the residence of Dr. T. V. B. Embree, but all remedies failed, and it died that evening at half past nine. The parents proceeded on their homeward journey, taking the remains with them.

Southern Oregon.

Baker post No. 8, G. A. R., was recently organized at Marshfield with 20 members.

Freeman G. Lockhart, one of the first settlers of Coos county, died on the 30th ult. at Empire City.

The vessel which John Kruse has started to build at North Bend will be a steam schooner, for the Crescent City trade. Her keel is 128 feet, beam 30 feet and hold 12 feet.

Coast Mail: Capt. Littlefield has men at work and expects to this week finish up the government road running from South slough to the Cape Arago light house. Last Sunday there was less than a mile to complete on the light house end.

Capt. Littlefield has had built at his residence at Rocky Point an observatory from which can be obtained a full view of the bar and entrance to Coos bay. The structure is above and rests on the comb of the roof of the house; is reached by a substantial stairway running up the side of the house and over the roof; is a fine place on a fine day, and will seat comfortably a dozen or more persons.

Charles Eckhoff and Harry Graves have established a fishery at Dewey's rock, between North Bend and Centerville, Coos county, and are now taking and salting salmon. They have a good substantial house built on the shore, the room and foundation for which were obtained by digging and blasting away the bank. In front piles have been driven and a convenient wharf built upon which to land the fish and prepare them for the tanks inside, of which there are five, capable of holding in the aggregate 250 barrels, and if the run demands it they can put in another tank and increase their salting facilities to 300 barrels.

Washington Territory.

Miss V. Hancock is telegraph operator at Dungeness.

Beach is the name of the new postoffice in Whatcom county.

The dwelling of Charles Washmuner at Alderton, Thurston county, was burned recently. Loss, $800.

A forest fire is raging in the foot hills back of Port Discovery, presumably started by Chamber's military expedition.

The Standard mills at Walla Walla have commenced running again with largely increased capacity. They now turn out 140 barrels of flour every 24 hours.

Work has been commenced on two huge snow plows at Sprague, which will be over eight feet in height. These are to be used on the mountain division, as there is little or no use for a plow between Wallula Junction and Spokane.

Goldendale Sentinel: There are large fires raging now in the mountains north of us—the largest, we are informed, that has ever been known in this section. The atmosphere is murky with smoke, and at night the flames can be plainly seen shooting up and burning with a steady glow. The fire appears to be running in a direct southerly line, but so far no damage has been done beyond the wanton destruction of valuable timber.

A son of H. P. Shotwell of High Prairie, Klickitat county, met with quite a serious accident last week. He was digging a well, and while working in the bottom of the same a bucket loaded with about 25 pounds of rock got loose, falling 15 feet, striking him on the head and knocking him senseless. It was impossible to get medical aid for a long time, but at last accounts the young man was much improved and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The territorial university will reopen on September 20th, after undergoing a most thorough overhauling and repairing. The following is the faculty as far as constituted: Prof. L. J. Powell, A. M., mathematics, phychology and pedagogics; Prof. O. P. Lee, A. M., English literature and commercial department; Prof. H. J. Swain, natural sciences; Miss Mattie L. Hansee, ancient languages; Prof. E. Steinle, German and music. Inferior positions have not yet been filled. Several of the higher branches, which have not heretofore been taught, will be taken up during the coming school year.

AN OBLIGING CRIMINAL.

To Oblige a Reporter He Consents to a Speedy Execution.

A story of a reporter who, in order to have an account of an execution in the afternoon paper which employed him, asked the sheriff to hang the condemned man an hour earlier than the time set, has been going the rounds lately in one form and another. The Brooklyn ... vouches for the truth of the incident and gives what it declares to be the true version. The reporter was Mr. Kenward Philp, then engaged on the Brooklyn Eagle. He was sent to cover the hanging of a man at Plainfield, N. J., and found the execution was not to take place till an hour which would not give him time to get back to Brooklyn to do it justice. He went to the sheriff and told him that the failure to hang the man at 10, as announced, would knock him out, and asked him to put the ceremony at 11 ... o'clock, so that he could get the 11 ... train back. To Mr. Philp's surprise the sheriff was very indignant, but finally promised that if Philp could persuade the condemned man to be hanged an hour sooner he would only be too glad to get the disagreeable job off his hands. Mr. Philp went to the cell and told him plainly what he came for. They had a drink together. The unfortunate man found Philp a very agreeable companion, and said that so far as he was concerned it didn't much matter whether he was hanged an hour sooner or later. Philp then wrote a note to the sheriff embodying the request, the condemned man signed it, and he was hanged at 11. It was subsequently ascertained, however, that the condemned man could not read writing, and the painful doubt was expressed whether he knew what he was signing. But Philp caught his train.

Could not be Mistaken.

From the Cincinnati Commercial, Rep.

It was stupid to deny the authenticity of the Dorsey letter. It had the strong, loud, unmistakable stalwart smell.

A Little Person with Big Pockets.

From the Washington Post, Dem.

Mr. Mahone is the administration, so far as Virginia is concerned. He carries a department in each pocket.

Amputation. Dora Davidson, an orphan girl, aged 15 ..., who has been living at ... Samaritan hospital for some time, suffered amputation of the right leg below the knee. Several years ago the limb was broken and the bones failed to unite and decayed. The operation was performed by Dr. Saylor, assisted by Drs. Strong, Wilson and Auerbach.

W. SCHEFFLER'S PURE WINES AND BRANDY.

It is universally conceded that Wm. Scheffler's, St. Helena, Cal., good old Port, Sherry, Amber, White Reesling, Hock, Muscat, Angelica and Claret Wines, as also his Sanitary Vacuum distilled pure Grape Brandy, are really superior to other manufactures, not excepting that imported, the adulterations and impurities of which is now generally understood. Mr. Scheffler's goods are popularly known all over the Pacific coast. Eight-tenths of all the druggists in California, Oregon and Washington territory have adopted his goods, discarding the imported. Ask your druggist here in Portland, East Portland, or in any town in this northwest, and you will be quite sure to obtain it, as you will at most of the first-class hotels and bars. Mr. Scheffler's Wines and Sanitary Brandy have been steadily growing into favor until they are known well in almost every household as a medicine, if not otherwise. Mr. Scheffler's process of distilling in a vacuum is his own patent process, which relieves his brandy of the fusil oil, making it really pure, sanitary and healthful.

Mr. Geo H. Beech, Mr. Scheffler's representative, is now up visiting his customers.

THE OAKLAND HOME INSURANCE COMPANY.

Semi-Annual Statement.

The semi-annual statement of the Oakland Home Insurance Company for the six months ending June 30th, 1882, shows an excellent condition of affairs to exist, and that, despite the generally unfavorable season, this company has advanced in business, assets, surplus and income. The total assets now stand at $271,364 23, as against $241,457 01, January 1, 1882, with present liabilities, including re-insurance reserve, and all other claims, of $58,755 66, showing a surplus as regards policy-holders, of $212,608 57.

From a comparative review of the semi-annual statement, we gather that the gross premiums written during the six months ending June 30, 1882, amounted to $56,788 24, an excess of $22,083 over the corresponding period last year. This shows average gross premium receipts of $9461 per month, as against $5781 per month last year, or a percentage of gain for 1882 over ... of ... one-third per cent. Taking into consideration the net premiums written, and we find they have amounted to $49,751 02, or $8,292 33 per month for the last half year, as against $26,474 47, or $4,412 41 per month for the corresponding period in 1881. The percentage of gain in 1882 over last is, therefore, 87 and one-half per cent. The total losses incurred, were $16,... 61, which shows a percentage of loss to net premiums of 32.2.

To recapitulate, the Oakland Home, during the half year ending June 30, 1882, received in income, $21,367.73, over all expenditures, including dividends, losses, commissions, salaries and miscellaneous expenses. Over $6000 has been added to its surplus account, and nearly $25,000 to its re-insurance reserve. In the light of these figures, the managers of the company are to be congratulated.

The above is copied from the Coast Review of San Francisco, the most reliable authority on insurance published on the Pacific coast.

The Oakland Home Insurance Company has recently deposited $50,000 in United States bonds with the state treasurer at Salem, for the special security of its Oregon policy, and established a northwestern department, consisting of Oregon and Washington and Idaho territories, with headquarters at Portland under the management of Messrs. Ferry, White & Co. Policies will be issued and losses adjusted and paid by this department, the same as if the head office of the company was situated in Portland, thus making the Oakland Home, for all practical purposes, a home company. Messrs. Ferry, White & Co. will establish agencies for this company in all of the principal towns in their district which have well-organized fire departments.

CLARKE COUNTY NOTES.

FROM THE OREGONIAN'S LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.

Lewis River, Aug. 31.

... are causing a universal lament. They ... an out and out failure this season.

... grants are exhausting the government resources in lands out in the Cedar creek country. They are flocking one and all every trip down of the boat.

A great deal of fire is running through the woods, doing more or less damage and giving people enough to do to keep from burning out. It seems to come from slashings that have imprudently been fired this excessively dry weather.

The Lewis and Lake River Transportation company are to build a commodious warehouse and wharf at Quigley's Landing on Lake river. The wharf will be 80x100 feet with an elevated roadway to the bluffs. Work on the same will begin next week.

A few days ago a panther that measured eight feet was killed on the Yacolt prairie by Messrs. ... and Lovejoy. It was dispatched after a brief but determined struggle; the hunters coming into such close quarters that the first effective ... was ... by thrusting the muzzle of the gun between its distended jaws.

Our orchardists give but indifferent attention to peach culture. I know of only two peach orchards on Lewis river and I have to record their failure in fruitage this season for the first time in years, caused ... by drouth. It will be one of the signs of the good time coming when our fruit-growers devote a portion of their attention and ground to the cultivation of peaches.

The Excitement Increasing

Dublin Sept. 1—6 P M —Crowds are gathering on the streets, particularly in the vicinity of Dublin Castle The excitement is increasing rapidly. Earl Spencer, on leaving the vice-regal lodge under escort, was loudly cheered A number of dismissed constables who left the castle yard shortly after wards received a tremendous ovation All the police have now struck except the officers and members of the detective force The latter number only 200 Four hundred men have been sworn in here as specials The constables had a meeting this evening at which strong anti government speeches were delivered The lord mayor declared his intention to issue the following proclamation

"As a misunderstanding between the metropolitan police and government authorities has led to the withdrawal of a large number of men from the protection of the city therefore it is my duty to impress upon every citizen anxious for the safety of the city, personal and corporate and for the preservation of peace and order that self control and a peaceful demeanor were never more necessary than now, and I call upon my fellow citizens to display their qualities I am confident you will join with me in maintaining order and tranquility

Mounted police and the G division are taking no part in the strife at present and at a meeting of the corporation this evening the lord mayor submitted a series of resolutions expressing the anxiety of council at the difference existing between the police and executive, and regretting that the harmonious relations prevailing between the police and municipal councils of England and Scotland does not exist in Dublin, and declaring that in consequence the corporation could take no official action in the matter and urging citizens to aid in keeping the peace The resolutions were carried

Dublin Sept 1—9 P M —Many ex police in citizen's clothes are moving about in bodies harangued occasionally by ex policemen A number of persons not connected with the police are taking advantage of the occasion to deliver oration to the populace

10 o'clock P. M.—Roughs are assembling in force A mob has assailed a tram car and has broken the windows of the police station on College street

At 10.30 P. M a mob in Brunswick street threw stones at the troops and one man was wounded. The magistrate read the riot act and the troops charged and the mob fled No further casualties are reported

A large detachment of rifles has arrived at Kingstown from Dublin, and took possession of the police barracks there. Of the entire police force numbering 1175 men 240 have been dismissed and 620 declined further duty Inspectors and sergeants have taken no steps in the matter The impression prevails among police that they acted hastily It is rumored a majority of the dismissed men will go to America Hundreds of citizens including Mr Goddard of the Property Defense association Dudgeon solicitor for the emergency committee and many Orangemen have presented themselves to be sworn in as special constables for a week The constabulary at country stations have been requested by telegraph to come to Dublin

Dublin, Sept. 1.—Large bodies of infantry and cavalry paraded the city the entire night

A bayonet charge has been made in Sackville street where soldiers were hotly pressed and badly stoned. Troops are stationed before the bank of Ireland. Many constables have returned to duty at Kevin street police barracks

The suburbs of Dublin will be guarded by constabulary 250 of whom have been ordered from the depot for the purpose The gates of Dublin castle were locked at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and then double guarded.

Swearing in New Constables.

Dublin, Sept. 2—Hynes will be executed September 11 The emergency committee has presented 60 men to be sworn in as special constables But a difficulty however is raised as to the form of oath which obliges the person taking it to swear he is not a member of a secret or political society The secretary of the emergency committee stated the committee was not a political body. The lord lieutenant then directed the case to be stated for an opinion by law officers which is to be communicated to-day If favorable about 1000 men will be at once available The whole police force comprising 883 men has left the service, and only the officers numbering 25 remain

The Lake Nepizon Disaster

Kingstown, Sept 1.—The second officer of the steamer Lake Nepizon, with 30 of the crew and 60 passengers, landed here at 4 o'clock this evening. Two boats it is supposed reached Arklow The captain of the steamer and five men remained by the ship which was making no water when the second officer left it

London Sept 1—Two gun boats were sent from Queenstown to assist the Lake Nepizon The press association reports the Lake Nepizon was towed off at high tide and proceeded to Liverpool with two engineers and part of her crew on board

London September 2—A later telegram from Liverpool announces that another boat with two persons arrived at Greystone Correspondents of the press association telegraphs at Wicklow all boats of the Lake Nepizon have safely arrived at different points and there has been no lives lost

Another Wreck Reported

A dispatch from Falmouth this evening says a large steamer of the Hamburg and American line is reported ashore at Penzance. Particulars not received The name of the steamer is unknown

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco Notes.

San Francisco Sept 1—The steamer Suez which arrived from Honolulu to day brought 37 Chinese passengers They were all however armed with registration papers and were permitted to land without detention

The general impression is that the bark Dublin which went ashore yesterday two miles south of the Cliff House will prove a loss On receiving the news the tugs Holyoke Kate Donald and the Eita immediately went out and attempted to get her off The first pull resulted in the hawser parting In the second attempt the bits were pulled out and the vessel given up for lost The officers and crew with their personal effects went on board the tugs and came in leaving the Dublin in 14 feet of water and full Her owner is J W Adams The Dublin is a very old vessel

CROP REPORTS

Favorable Harvest Weather

[illegible] In Dakota [illegible] the yield are fully sustained by the few reports [illegible]

The Hay Crop of Illinois.

Springfield Sept 2—The area of meadows as returned by the assessors [illegible] state board of agriculture is the largest [illegible] 2,000,000 acres The hay crop is generally saved in good condition but the yield is not the best being rather rank Total yield is 3,500,000 tons or 0.3 tons more than in 1881 which was the largest crop previously record[ed]

Northwestern Crop Reports.

Milwaukee Sept 2—Crop reports to the Lambert of commerce show the weather this week has been very unsettled the rainfall being considerable and widely extended over the northwestern states Only isolated localities complain of damage The temperature has been cool and aids the saving of grain though stacking and threshing are impeded All reports agree the quality is good and yield better than for years Early figures as to winter wheat are [illegible] all except that there is a decline of 30 to 50 per cent in Michigan Spring wheat is uncertain yet but the increased yield will balance the decreased acreage It is believed prices will go lower yet, but not stay there long

Chicago Sept 2—The wheat crop of the country for the year is estimated by a New York commercial journal at 5 7 430 000 bushels The Illinois board of agriculture makes a return of 4 339,186 tons of hay

A Good Report.

Louisville, Sept 2—Commissioner Havens reports the average condition of crops in Tennessee in average as follows corn, 153 cotton 98, tobacco 110 sorghum 122; fruits and all kinds of products away above par.

Eastern Freight Situation.

New York Sept —The clipper freight market continues very quiet and outside of shipments of oil railroad iron coal and lumber there are very few outward freights of merchandise offered and as a consequence ships are rather slow. But the Eureka and Snow and Burgess ought to have been loaded last month out slow deliveries of oil particularly caused the matter until the current month Both vessels will get away next week Rates are weak and can hardly be quoted steady as one of the [illegible] the ships out of the way has been cutting rates although at the same time denying it in the face of proof, however as a whole the last quotations would seem to be the one now current The supply of tonnage although not large is gradually [illegible] at all rates [illegible]

At Boston the city freight market is very slow, [illegible] Railroad freights at Boston have been fairly active with shipments of 365 packages of fish [illegible] cases of canned goods 42 cases [illegible]

The freight market at Philadelphia is also very quiet [illegible] C Wales is nearly loaded and will sail in a day or two
